

Diversity & inclusion program for professionals

Purpose

Trauma-Sensitive Yoga Nederland (TSYN) is deeply committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion. The program is dedicated to eliminating some of the disparities that have prevented historically diverse social groups from gaining access to opportunities such as Trauma Informed Yoga/ Trauma-Sensitive Yoga interventions.

Our vision is to broaden possibilities and are inviting individuals to join our 20-hr foundational TCTSY trainings. We are planning to move and share the training with these identified un-served or underserved communities and populations.

For the online foundational trainings in January 2022 we have 4 spots available for you to join our training. If you qualify your participation in the 20-hr foundational TCTSY training is free of any cost (training value only).

Participants who apply for the 20-hr Foundational training, online January 2022, please tick one or more below:

- Hold cultural Identities/Intersections that are underrepresented in working Trauma-Informed.
- Indigenous People
- People of Color or Visual Minority
- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual
- Older Adults: 60+
